

~~5.2.26~~ 5.2.26

Ajanta

Page No. _____

Date _____

MJCL5/B.A. Sem IV

The Glass Menagerie About the Author

Tennessee Williams was born as Thomas Lanier William III on March 26, 1911 in Columbus Mississippi. He was a dynamic American writer. In his early life he faced many turbulent phase in his family life. The literary works perhaps is a reflection. He attended the university of Missouri but father compelled him to leave the school and work in the shoe factory. Later he joined Washington University and completed his degree in 1938.

His brief and small career got breakthrough with the 'Glass Menagerie' in 1944.

The popularity of his artistic ~~creator~~ creation was based on ~~technique~~ technical lyricism philosophy of loneliness and different condition of human manifestations. His plays often depicted internal human torments, helplessness, trials and tribulations.

He ~~receiv~~ received many rewards such as Pulitzer prizes, four New York Drama Critics' Circle Awards and a Tony Award.

(2)

5.2.26.

Page No. _____

Date _____

Ajanta

and a Tony Awards for Best Play.
His latter life was difficult, painful and depressing.
In brief his life was a story of mystery, pain and unfulfilled desire.

Despite all these chronology of pain he has been ~~remembered~~ remembered as an unflinching personality in American literature.
In American literary family he is remembered for his steadfastness ~~for~~ ~~for~~ against the broken threads of fate and fortune.

Karunaditya Singh
Deptt - English
Sher Shah College.